

Quality policy and EMS

The quality is prerequisite for of success

Quality is decisive factor satisfaction of everyone who is connected with the enterprise of our company. The aim of our firm is to supply products and services, that provide quality which ensures the success and prosperity while ensuring customer requirements, laws and regulations.

Customers

The long-term conceptual work and performance convinces our customers that we deliver quality products and services to their full satisfaction including their specific requirements.

Suppliers

In the selection our suppliers, we place emphasis on quality, which are required by our customers. Quality and reliability of deliveries are prerequisites for a successful long-term cooperation.

Employes

Our company supports the skills, ability and professional knowledgesna druhou stranu of staff. On the other hand we are expecting from them loyalty, personal responsibility and shared merits of the company. Their personal benefit and satisfaction is directly proportional to the satisfaction of our customers and the reputation of our company.

The way to continuous improvement

All of our activity we manage to the prevention of errors in all processes. Our target is zero defects. Our strategy is a systematic increasing the level of quality of our products and services.

Our company

Our company is responsible for social behavior to all interested partners and regularly evaluates the effectiveness of all processes in the company.

The quality increases the value of our company

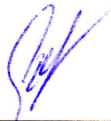

The high level of internal processes doesn't demonstrate only the quality of end products and services but also the certification of the company by third party or approval as supplier by customer's audits.

The environment

Our company knows the importance the environmentally friendly production and other activities. We implement innovative technologies and processes. Care of health and safety at work is basic condition for the satisfaction of our employees.

Our company is committed to comply with legal and other requirements in this objects.

In Bělotin, 9.2.2015

Ing. Rádomír Gockert
General Manager

Richard Veselý
Technical Manager

Zdeněk Mikoška
Finance Manager

Michael Kalivoda
Quality Manager